

*The following typical street sections relate to the concept illustration. The concept illustration shows three basic street types; local access, collector and arterial street. For local streets and collector streets, either of the two sections for each street type could apply as appropriate for a given location.

Local Access

Local Access as "Green Street"

*The following typical street sections relate to the concept illustration. The concept illustration shows three basic street types; local access, collector and arterial street. For local streets and collector streets, either of the two sections for each street type could apply as appropriate for a given location.

Collector

Exchange Parking at Intersection
for Left Turn Lane

Collector

with Left Turn Lane Continuous

*The following typical street sections relate to the concept illustration. The concept illustration shows three basic street types; local access, collector and arterial street. For local streets and collector streets, either of the two sections for each street type could apply as appropriate for a given location.

Arterial / Parkway

Bear Creek Parkway

